What you need to know?

- Children aren't allowed to join most social media platforms until age 13 because of a law called The Children's Online Privacy Protection Act.
- Although kids can't join social media themselves, their parents can post information and photos about them to their own accounts.
- By age 2, 90% of children have been featured on social media.

Have your students visit theweekjunior.com/polls to vote. We'll publish the results next week.
